

Supplementary Figure 1: Mental health condition and specialized population research priorities of registered dietitians by years of practice

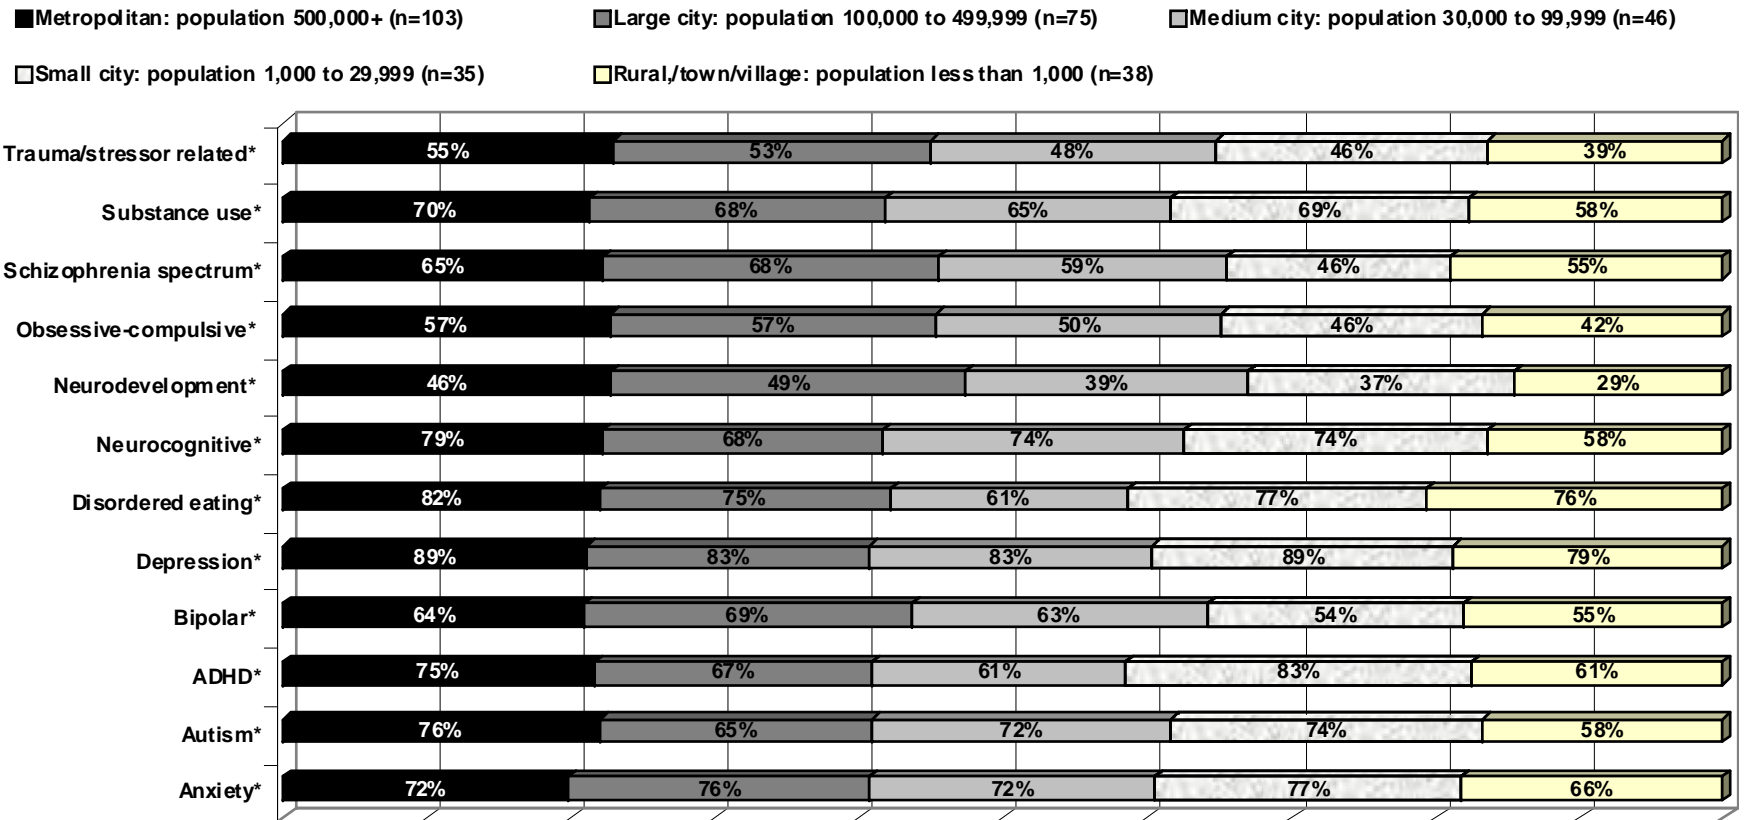

Supplementary Figure 1: Mental health condition and specialized population research priorities of registered dietitians by years of practice /cont'd..

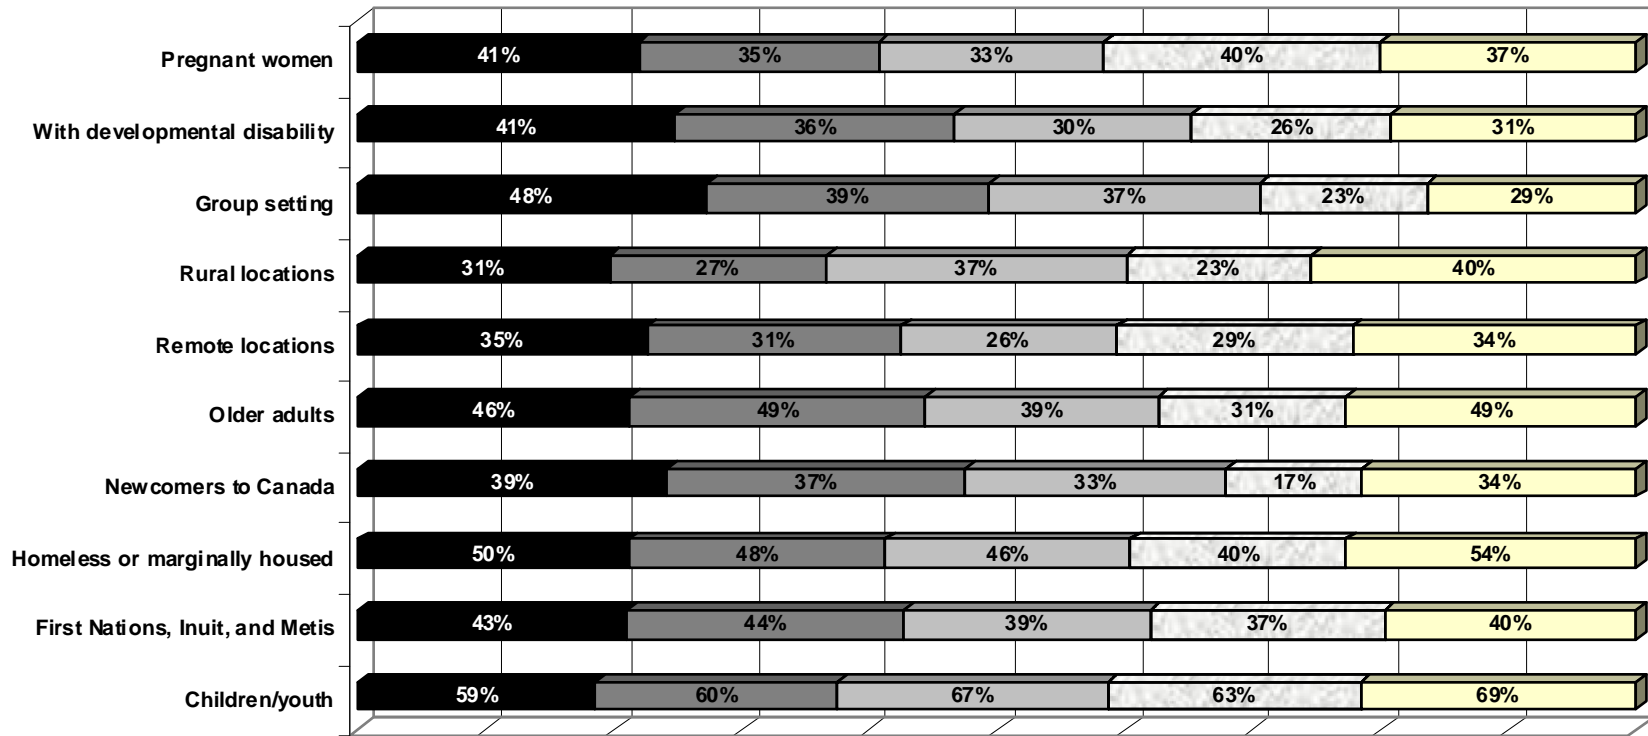

Notes: Disordered Eating - Examples: anorexia nervosa, bulimia nervosa; Neurocognitive disorders - Examples: Alzheimers disease, dementia; Neurodevelopment disorders - Examples: Tourette's syndrome; Trauma or stressor-related disorders - Examples: Post-traumatic stress disorder; Group setting: individuals that live in a home or facility; Pregnant women includes prenatal and post-partum period

*Significantly higher proportion when compared to all sampled dietitians at $p < 0.05$

Supplementary Figure 2: Mental health condition and specialized population research priorities of registered dietitians by community type

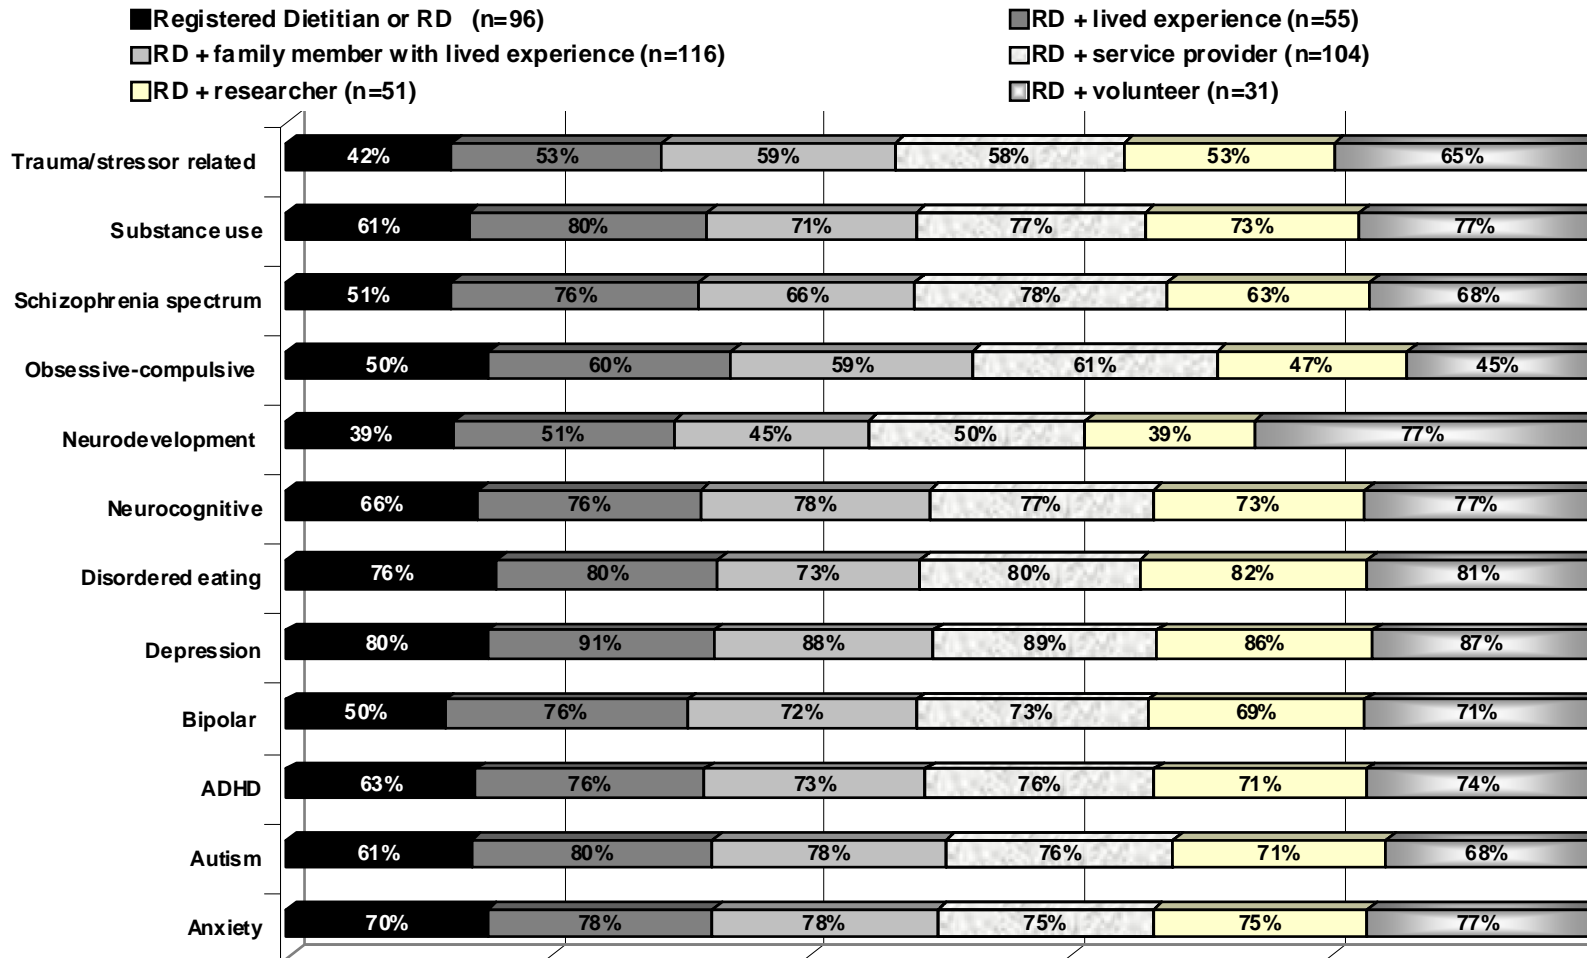

Supplementary Figure 2: Mental health condition and specialized population research priorities of registered dietitians by community type /cont'd..

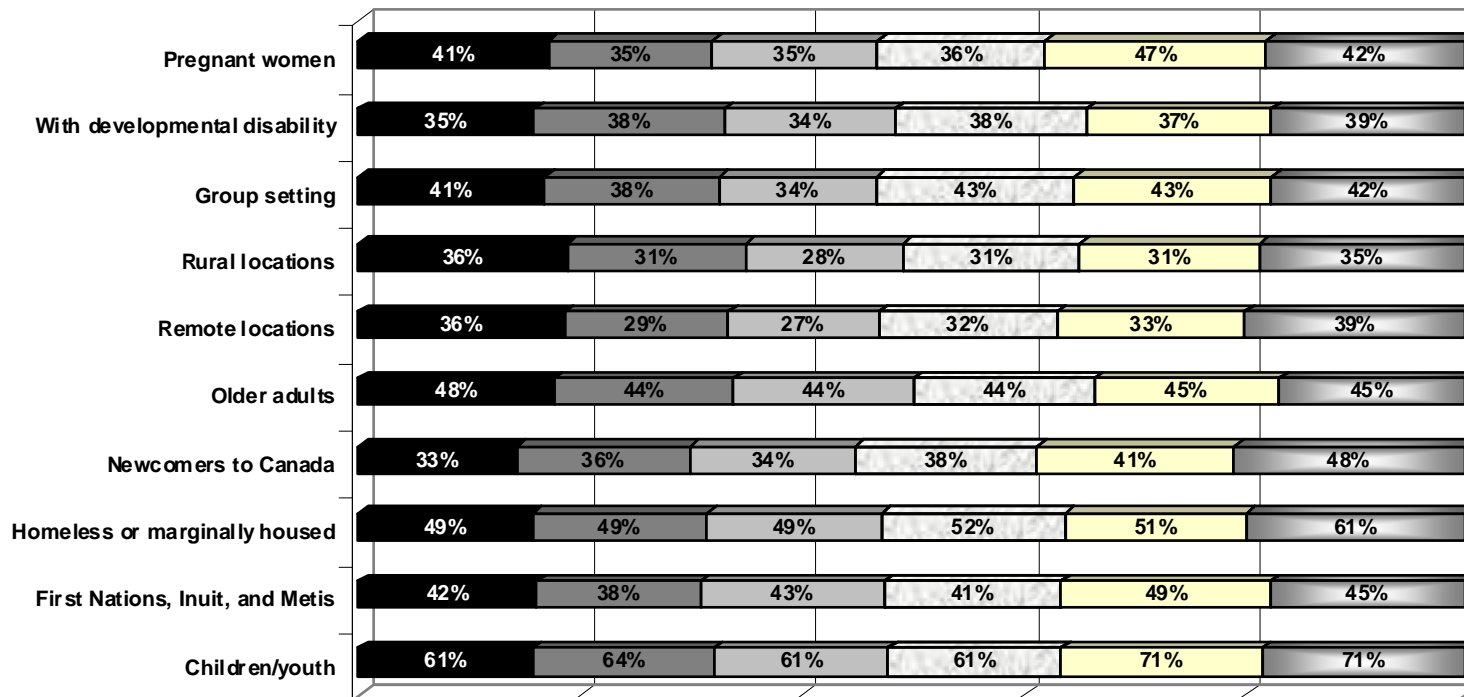

* Indicates significant association among the community sizes at $p < 0.05$

Notes: Disordered Eating - Examples: anorexia nervosa, bulimia nervosa; Neurocognitive disorders - Examples: Alzheimers disease, dementia; Neurodevelopment disorders - Examples: Tourette's syndrome; Trauma or stressor-related disorders - Examples: Post-traumatic stress disorder; Group setting: individuals that live in a home or facility; Pregnant women includes prenatal and post-partum period

Supplementary Figure 3: Mental health condition and specialized population research priorities of registered dietitians by stakeholder types

Supplementary Figure 3: Mental health condition and specialized population research priorities of registered dietitians by stakeholder types /cont'd..

Notes: Disordered Eating - Examples: anorexia nervosa, bulimia nervosa; Neurocognitive disorders - Examples: Alzheimers disease, dementia; Neurodevelopment disorders - Examples: Tourette's syndrome; Trauma or stressor-related disorders - Examples: Post-traumatic stress disorder; Group setting: individuals that live in a home or facility; Pregnant women includes prenatal and post-partum period